The Chet Buffum Tennis Award

Winner: Jane Cahill

This award is in honor of Chet Buffum, one whose love of the game began in his youth when his father only wanted him to be a sailor. He sneaked away to his real interest, tennis; where he spent many hours on the courts and learned never to give up, even when behind in a hard fought match. Later in life, after suffering a heart attack on the court, it was not long before he was back with racquet in hand. He played until his 80's with friends. His inspiration to his children and grandchildren prompted his grandson Sam to propose an award from the Buffum family to the person who exemplifies Chet Buffum's legacy...

Ambassador Arthur W. Gardner Bowl

Girls Winner: Annika Mannix

Boys Winner: Will Jacobs

Since 1958, the Gardner Bowl has been awarded to the junior boy and junior girl tennis players who have demonstrated substantial improvement through dedication to the game, while displaying the finest qualities of sportsmanship, tennis etiquette, conduct and character.
